

The Friends of the National Museum of Art of Romania
In cooperation with the Czech Embassy and
The Czech Center Bucharest
Present

S P I R I T U A L
K V I N T E T

Tonight's performance includes a repertory of:

- *16th and 17th Czech and Moravian ballads
- * Prague Renaissance songs from the King Rudolf II period of the 17th century
- *Czech composers' songs from The Baroque period
- *Society Songs from the time of the 19th century
Czech National Revival

The program will be concluded with an international folk repertory, and of special note, the Spiritual Kvintet's signature interpretations of

Black Spiritual and Gospel Songs

The program will be sung in both Czech and in English

The Friends of the National Museum of Art of Romania is a non-profit association dedicated to benefiting the museum. Currently the National Museum, the former Royal Palace, is open only for temporary exhibitions. Our primary focus is to assist in reopening the museum and to help raise it and its five satellite museums to world class standards.

Friends upcoming event:

Tuesday 19 October

"The Best Chef of Bucharest"

7:30 pm in the Throne Hall of the National Museum of Art of Romania Invitations are available from the Friends office 231.5517, fax 231.5516
Zambaccian Museum 21 A, Strada Muzuel Zambaccian, Bucharest

Thursday, September 30
7:30 PM

Auditorium Hall
The National Museum of Art of Romania
Stirbei Voda, no. 1

Please enjoy the exhibition of jewelry and textiles from Norway in the Rotunda

Reception following in the Auditorium entrance hall displaying Czech Art Nouveau artist Alfons Mucha's posters

Thank you to tonight's sponsors

CROWNE PLAZA

TROPIKANA

VINIA IAȘI

All proceeds benefit the National Museum of Art of Romania

Thank you for your support

A merry wit, temperament and fine timbre in cheerful harmony characterize the performances of The Spiritual Kvintet

Audiences on four continents for more than thirty five years have delighted in their repertoire ranging from 15th and 16th century European Renaissance songs, Bohemian and Moravian folk songs, the songs of the National Revival, and Scotch and Irish ballads

Cornerstone to the Spiritual Kvintet's performances is the authentic flair found in the Spiritual and Gospel songs sung with an unrestrained talent appealing to all